SATURDAY ACCIDENTS

Boy Loses a Leg and Carpenter Has Bone Broken.

Kaala, a native boy, had a leg so badly crushed by a cane car yesterday at Honolulu Plantation that it became necessary to amputate the leg at the knee. The boy was employed about the car, and although the particulars obtainable are meager, it is reported that he fell under the cars. His left leg was badly crushed and the young man was brought to the Queen's Hospital, where the leg was taken off just at the knee. Although suffering greatly from the effects of the shock, it is believed that the young man will recover.

FELL WITH SCAFFOLDING.

While carpenters were at work on the new High School building yesterday, the scaffolding from which they were working gave way and fell to the ground, a distance of about ten feet. F. W. Schultze, one of the carpenters, fell upon his left ankle, breaking a small bone. The fracture was promptly reduced, yet Schultze will be confined to his home for some time to come. Another carpenter, who was on the scaffolding at the time of the accident, escaped without injury.

REPORT ON SAILORS' HOME

The annual meeting of the Sailors' Home Society was held yesterday at the office of F. A. Schaefer, the secretary. J. A. Kennedy, C. H. Atherton, S. E. Damon, E. F. Bishop, S. G. Wilder and Captain A. Fuller were elected as trustees. A report from the treasurer, E. F. Bishop, showed the funds of the society to be very low, and public help is solicited.

The report of the superintendent, Captain I. Bray, is interesting. It is in part as follows:

"This report has to do with the tenth successive year of usefulness of the Honolulu Sailors' Home, said by seamen patrons, to be the finest home and grounds for sailors in the world. Still, if the Home was again on the old Sailors' Home site, corner Bethel and Merchant streets, it would do a large business, as most of the shipping is now at that end of the town, and at the Railroad wharves. As it is, however, hundreds of the men of the sea, representing twenty-three nationalities, have come, and gone from the Home during the past twelve months.

"No sailor, with or without money, has been turned away.

"Thirteen shipwrecked sailors have found a home, and thirty-five destitute seamen have been assisted, to the amount of $64.45. The superintendent has handled $4,142 from officers and seamen for banking drafts, postoffice orders, and safe keeping, some of which was sent to Finland to the widow and children of a ship's carpenter who died in the Hospital for Incurables.

"All classes of seamen patronize the Home, and those who come once usually come again at every return to this port.

"The coming of Admiral Evans' squadron gave a great impetus to our business, and proved a valuable aid to the finances. During the stay of the ships some 220 of the fleet sailors preferred the Home for their headquarters to any other lodgings in town.

"The members of the 'Oregon's' band patronized the Home on their first visit to this port in that ship, and did the same on their second visit.

"We have had four captains, seven mates, sixteen second mates, six boatswains, five quartermasters, fourteen ship's carpenters, seventeen cooks and stewards, thirteen cabin boys, 290 able seamen, seventeen ordinary seamen, six engineers, eighteen firemen and coal passers, 617 transients (mostly navy sailors), total, 1030. Three hundred and thirty-six officers and men have shipped from the Home, thirteen of them in the U. S. Navy, and twenty have found shore employment. There were forty-four defaulting boarders.

"Numerous friends have liberally supplied the reading room with the most interesting illustrated reading matter.

"While it has been the smallest year's work of the present superintendent, the year closes with everything in order, and no outstanding debt, and, with encouraging prospects of much better business for at least two years to come, through the coming of numerous large sailing ships, that are already chartered for the Cape Horn sugar freights.

"ISAIAH BRAY,
"Superintendent."

GUY GERE AFTER ALL

Will Probably Succeed
Marston Campbell
as Engineer.

Marston Campbell, Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, after having received the endorsement of the Republican Central Committee for re-appointment, has withdrawn his application for the position, which under new conditions is that of consulting engineer of the department.

On November 13 the Advertiser stated, "on good authority," that it was the intention of Governor Carter to appoint Guy H. Gere as Superintendent of Public Works, to succeed H. E. Cooper, resigned. The statement was made with words accompanying it which favored the choice. At that time it was well known that the Governor, with an eye to changed conditions coming with county government, intended to do away with the office of Assistant Superintendent and have the executive and engineering divisions of Public Works under a single headship. Since then the Governor from closer acquaintance with the work of the department has concluded that the amalgamation of heads is impracticable. All the time, however, it was meant that the next man under the Superintendent, to have charge of plans and specifications, would be known as the "consulting engineer." When Mr. Gere's selection was generally accepted as a settled fact, Mr. Campbell's resignation was tendered to the Governor. Pending the appointment of a successor to him, Mr. Campbell has continued in his old position owing to the necessity of engineering oversight of public works under way and projected for early execution.

Mr. Gere, on the occasion in question, met with strong rivals for the Superintendent's office both in qualifications and support. Mr. Holloway was ultimately chosen as Superintendent. The Governor, though, has evidently never lost sight of Mr. Gere for promotion in the department. Mr. Gere being now mentioned as the probable successor of Mr. Campbell along with the latter's withdrawal of application for re-appointment. Mr. Gere has been in the engineering division for some years, the past year or more being resident engineer of the department on the island of Hawaii. So much was doing there that it was deemed wise by Superintendent Cooper to keep a supervising engineer on the island all the time.

St. Douglass.

'Twas the night before Christmas,
And all through the house,
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a mouse.
When mama awoke with a start and a shake,
And wondered why papa
Was so wide awake;
A rumbling and roaring
Soon came to their ears—
A noise that would follow them,
All through their years.
For down near the bath room
The water rushed out,
And it caused poor papa
And mama to shout.
"Oh, why did we make such a fearful mistake?"
"Oh, John dear, I fear that
My poor heart will break,
Unless you will promise
That tomorrow you'll call
Bath, the plumber, and have him
Go over it all.
And then no more leaks.
For we know that 'tis true,
That folks always call Bath
When there's plumbing to do."
